

AUG 10 1953

AGENCY

3-1

Approved For Release 2000/08/24 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100080073-2

CPYRGHT

Press Intelligence, Inc.
WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

BATAVIA (N.Y.) NEWS

Circ.: e. 11,706

Front
PageEdit
PageOther
Page 7

Date:

AUG 10 1953

Morning News

Newspapers in Tehran, Iran, said that 10 persons died in a new heat wave on Iran's Southern Coast.

A woman was reported to have put in a bid for the job of Sing Sing executioner to replace Joseph Francel who resigned.

Sen. Male (R-Nev) was reported resting comfortably in Stroudsburg, Pa., Hospital after fracturing his pelvis in a fall from a horse.

The population of the United States will reach the 160,000,000 mark today, the Census Bureau reported in Washington, officials said.

President Eisenhower spent a quiet Sunday attending church services and visiting old friends on the first full day of his Colorado vacation.

Automobile manufacturers are first in beginning to pare down steel orders, "Steel," the metal working weekly, issued in Cleveland, reported.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill is still recovering from two slight strokes, but some officials in London said they doubted he would return to active leadership.

John W. Snyder, former secretary of the Treasury, declared in a talk in Chicago that despite talk of a recession the signs point to a continuation of prosperity.

The major unions, one AFL and the other CIO, announced in Washington a "no raiding" agreement in which each pledged to respect areas already organized by the other.

Allen W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency chief, left by plane for Europe and some mountain climbing in the Swiss Alps. Dulles is the brother of U. S. Secretary of State Dulles.

Three West Coast senators asked the Navy to build a super carrier of the Forrestal class on the Pacific Coast. They explained there were ample facilities for such construction.

The movement of 3,500 National Guard men from New Jersey to Camp Drum was completed by train and truck. The men will spend two weeks in the Northern New York camp.

U. S. Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce in Rome entertained some of the surviving crew members of a mass flight of Italian seaplanes which 20 years ago made history by flying from Italy to Chicago. There are 25 of the 67 still living.

Rep. Cellar (D-NY) sharply criticized the investigative tactics of Sen. McCarthy and Rep. Velde and urged that Congress "let one, good, solid committee" handle all the inquiries into subversive activities. He made the statement in Washington.

CPYRGHT

Approved For Release 2000/08/24 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100080073-2